Coaching takes practice. Explaining takes practice. Work together to practice digging deeper to make meaning.

A coach’s job is to help the explainer explain in detail. Don’t judge or tell the explainer that they are right or wrong. Resist explaining it for them; keep helping them explain by coaching and questioning.
Student Rights:

1. You have the right to make a contribution to an attentive, responsive audience.

2. You have the right to ask questions.

3. You have the right to be treated civilly.

4. You have the right to have your ideas discussed, not you personally.

Student Obligations:

1. You are obligated to speak loud enough for others to hear.

2. You are obligated to listen for understanding.

3. You are obligated to agree or disagree (and explain why) in response to other people’s ideas.

4. You are obligated to know your classmates names.

“No single student is as smart as all of us put together.”

“You have the right to ask for help, and the duty to provide it to others.”

CARE about UNDERSTANDING your Partner

Four Focus Strategies

FACE:
- Look your partner in the eyes
- Listen in silence

FEEDBACK:
- Not your head
- Give caring cues

FOLLOW-UP:
- Ask a question
- Try to find out more

REPHRASE:
- Try saying back your partner’s thinking
